After months of work, we recently added the Pax A30 credit card device to our portfolio and are now pleased to offer it to all our customers at a price of $549.

Set up

The process is straightforward. Unplug your current device and plug in the new PAX A30. Then a quick call to our technical support department from 9 to 4 Eastern Time Monday - Friday to enable a minor change in the backend. And. voila, you're all set.

Interested?

Just use the link below to communicate your interest in switching to PAX A30 or if you still need answers to any questions.
